Woman's Trials.

The bitter trail in a woman's life is to be childless. Who can tell how hard the struggle may have been ere she learnt to resign herself to her lonely lot? The absence of this link to bind marital life together, the absence of this one pledge to mutual affection is a common disappointment. Many unfortunate couples become estranged thereby. Even if they do not drift apart, one may read the whole extent of their disappointment in the eyes of such a childless couple when they rest on the children of others. To them the largest family does not seem too numerous.

In many cases of barrenness or childlessness the obstacle to child-bearing is easily removed by the cure of weakness on the part of the woman. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has been the means of restoring health and fruitfulness to many a barren woman, to the great joy of the household. In other, but rare cases, the obstruction to the bearing of children has been found to be of a surgical character, but easily removable by painless operative treatment at the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., over which Dr. Pierce of the "Favorite Prescription" fame presides. In all cases where children are desired and are absent, an effort should be made to find out the real cause, since it is generally so easily removed by proper treatment.

In all the various weaknesses, displacements, prolapsus, inflammation and debilitating, catarrhal drains and in all cases of nervousness and debility, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the most efficient remedy that can possibly be used. It has to its credit hundreds of thousands of cures—more in fact than any other remedy put up for sale through druggists, especially for woman's use. The ingredients of which the "Favorite Prescription" is composed have received the most positive endorsement from the leading medical writers on Materia Medica of all the several schools of practice. All the ingredients are printed in plain English on the wrapper enclosing the bottle, so that any woman making use of this famous medicine may know exactly what she is taking. Dr. Pierce takes his patients into his full confidence, which he can afford to do as the formula after which the "Favorite Prescription" is made will bear the most careful examination.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are the best and safest laxative for women.

TO KILL THE DANDRUFF GERM.

Is the Only Positive Way of Having An Effective Cure.

If you see a woman or a man with luxuriant glossy hair, you may be sure neither has dandruff to amount to anything. In nearly every case where women and men have thin brittle hair, they owe it to dandruff. There are hundreds of preparations that "claim" to cure dandruff, but not one but Newbro's Herpicide tells you that dandruff is the result of a germ burrowing into the scalp, and that permanent cure of dandruff and its consequent falling and baldness, can only be had by killing the germ; and there is no other preparation that will destroy that germ but Newbro's Herpicide. "Destroy the cause, and you remove the effect." Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

HICKS FOR AUGUST.

A reactionary storm period is central on August 2nd, 3rd and 4th, embracing the full moon at a total eclipse node on the 4th. This period will culminate within forty-eight hours of moon on the 4th, in very marked electrical and seismic perturbations over many quarters of the globe. In our own country, a wave of intense warmth, attended by very low barometer readings, will start in the West at the opening of the month. As this wave advances eastward, many violent, summer gusts, with severe lightning and thunder, will sweep wide localities, being most general and violent from the northwestern States along paths lying between the central to extreme northern part of the country,

A regular storm period lies between the 7th and 12th. It is central on the 9th and will culminate from the 8th to the 11th. Great increase of temperature, with corresponding fall of the barometer, will pass like a wave from West to East during this period. Black, blustering clouds, thunder and high winds, with possibly cloudbursts in scattered localities, may be expected but we do not believe that a sufficiency of rain will be diffused generally over the country. This period leads into a mercury period, and that, in turn, leads into the earth's autumnal equinocial period, all of which is illustrated in the storm diagram of August. Hence a prolonged threatening state of the weather will be very natural, with increased and positive reactionary storms on the 15th, 16th and 17th. A rapid, but temporary rise of the barometer will follow these storms, with brief respite from August heat.

A regular storm period runs from the 19th to 23rd, being at the culmination of the mercury period, and under the growing influence of the autumnal equinox. The new moon at the solar eclipse node also falls on the 19th. The indications are that the heaviest and most general storms in August will occur during and next to Sunday the 19th, to Wednesday the 22nd. We will name the 20th and 21st as the crises. These dates will also be at the center of a seismic period, hence a maximum earthquake tendencies will be natural, centering on and about the 19th. We may say, also, with a degree of scientific certainty, that equatorial and West India storms and hurricanes will originate about this period. They may not reach the immediate vicinity of our south coasts at this period, but they will be sighted and reported, and all concerned should carefully note all warnings and watch subsequent developments. The best outlook for rains over the great grain belts and other sections in August is during this period, or from about the 17 or the 23rd. Violent summer storms need not surprise any reader at this time, and in the northwestern, open parts of country reasonable care should be exercised against violent hail storms. The focus of the solar energy is the high latitudes and about the beginning of its recession southward at this petiod. Hence the danger of hail storms and other severe atmospheric clashes and convulsions to the northward. If great equatorial storms and barometric depressions exist on or near the southern coasts during this storm period, the counter-balancing disturbances that move out of the northwest and across the inland will be followed by phenomenally high barometer, northwesterly gales and unseasonable change to colder, with frost along the northern tire of States.

A reactionary storm period is central on the 25th, 26th and 27th, with the moon in perigee, at first quarter and extreme south declination. If equatorial storms orginate in the South seas during the period 19th to 23rd—a thing most probable—under the growing pressure of the autumnal equinox the disturbances will live and grow as they advance northward, most likely reaching the regions of the Gulf of Mexico about Friday the 24th, to Tuesday the 28th. If West India hurricanes are sighted "south of Cuba" about the 19th to the 23rd, and reach our south coasts about Saturday, Sunday and Monday, the 25th, 26th and 27th, we shall read of people being swept away, with all their worldly belongings, either through lack of proper warning and urging, or through daredevil indifference to almost certain danger to property and life. We do not believe that this will apply to any reader of these forecasts. The last storm period for the month, 25th to 28th, will culminate in higher temperature, low barometer, cloudiness and more or less storms and rain over the country in general. August promises to come to an end with fair and cooler weather spreading eastwardly over the country.

A Healing Gospel.

The Rev. J. C. Warren, pastor of Sharon Baptist Church, Belair, Ga., says of Electric Bitters:" "It's a Godsend to mankind. It cured me of lame back, stiff joints, and complete physical collapse. I was so weak it took me half an hour to walk a mile. Two bottles of Electric Bitters have made me so strong I have just walked three miles in 50 minutes and feel like walking three more. It's made a new man of me." Greatest remedy for weakness and all Stomach, Liver and Kidney complaints. Sold under guarantee at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store. Price only 50c.

A Biblical Defense.

Marx Heffenel was arraigned before Police Justice Crutchfield in Richmond yesterday on a charge of drunkenness, but cleared himself by his resourcefulness.

"Were you drunk?" asked the Justice.

"Yes, Judge. But the Bible gave me the right to be, and I lead a Christian life."

"What!"

"Look at the sixth verse of the thirty-first chapter of Proverbs."

Judge John picked up the Bible gingerly and surreptitiously glanced at the index.

"Look in the middle of the book in the New Testatment," ventured Attorney H. M. Smith, jr.

"What do you know about a Bible? You don't know any more about it than Gilbert Pollock," exclaimed the court.

After a five-minutes search his honor read: "Give strong drink unto those who are ready to perish; and wine unto those that be of heavy heart."

"You say you have been leading a Christian life, eh? Well according to this you have, so I'm going to let you go; but if you come back here leading any more Christian lives I'll set you to breaking rock. Now go."

You need a pill? Use DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills. Do not sicken or gripe, but results are sure. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.

AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

THURSDAY EVENING. AUG. 2, 1906.

AFTER one of the most bitter party campaigns ever waged in Iowa, Governor A. B. Cumming was yesterday evening renominated by a vote which virtually routed the forces of his opponent, Perkins, the leader of the "stand-patters." But as sensational as was the victory of the leader of the "progressives" the result of the balloting was almost overshadowed in popular interest by the sensational demonstration in the convention against Leslie M. Shaw, Secretary of the Treasury in President Roosevelt's Cabinet. Secretary Shaw went to Iowa during the heat of the campaign for delegates, and entered actively into the hunt for Perkins delegates, going so far as to intimate that he had been sent by President Roosevelt to help out the "stand-patters." This intimation called forth a public denial by President Roosevelt's private secretary. Mr. Shaw, however, kept up his active interest in the Iowa fight, and yesterday, when his name was mentioned by the temporary chairman of the convention, it called forth a storm of hisses. For five minutes a great part of the delegates continued the hissing, while Mr. Shaw, seated in a box, endured the humiliation. The resolutions adopted were framed by the "progressives." On the tariff question they are in the nature of a compromise, being favorable to the revision idea. The tariff plank of the platform is as follows:

Wise and unselfish tariff laws, maintained in the interest of the general welfare, equally opposed to foreign control and domestic monopoly, are essential to our commercial and industrial prosperity. We believe that all inequalities in the tariff schedules, which inevitably arise from changing industrial and commercial conditions, should be adjusted from time to time; and condemning without reserve all assault upon the protective system, we favor such reasonable and timely changes as will keep the tariff in harmony with our industrial and commercial progress.

INVESTIGATION by New Jersey's health authorities of the composition of salt-water taffy, the manufacture of which originated at Atlantic City is certain to create a sensation. Notice has been served upon some manufacturers of the adulterated stuff that prosecution will be commenced against them if the State authorities shall fail in the performance of their plain duty. The projected action follows close upon and is inspired by the prosecutions instituted in Pennsylvania by Dr. Warren, head of the Dairy and Food Commission of that State. The findings by Special Agent Cassidy, of Dr. Warren's force, show that salt water taffy is the mere junk of the confectionery shops, which is bleached by poisonous sulphites, made tasteless by azavol, a chemical resolvent that is a powerful irritant, cheapened and sweetened by stomach-irritating glucose, instead of sugar, and colored with poisonous coal-tar dyes. Food adulteration is becoming so common now that one hardly knows what to eat.

THE almost continuous rains during the past two months have greatly increased the necessity for cutting the luxuriant growth of weeds that has sprung up on all of the vacant lots and in may of the streets and the suburbs of the city. The weeds are thick and with in a few weeks the decay will begin and a menace to health blossom on every lot where now the noxious growth runs rampant. An edict of the health board should go forth and be followed by a very strict enforcement, and every property owner should co-operate to the end that no weeds be left on his lot to threaten the life of his neighbor. Even from the standpoint of enhancing the beauty of the city these weeds should be cut down, but when so serious a question as the public health is involved there can be no argument in the matter. Begin now and let the last weed disappear.

GEN. LEE, commander of the American forces on the Island of Leyte, has telegraphed to Gen. Wood that he has 500 regular troops, besides a number of scouts and constabulary, ready to begin a movement to "round up" the rebellious Pulajanes. At the rate the Filipinos are being "rounded up," which means slaughtered, it will not be long before they are exterminated. The officers of the American army are under the impression that the only good Filipinos are dead Filipinos—still the Filipinos are only fighting for their liberty.

THE republican plan of campaign seems to be local option on the tariff, but "standing pat" on the President. It is a good deal easier and more interest, says the Philadelphia Record, to resolve that Theodore Roosevelt is the greatest man in American history than it is to justify a political record or formulate a policy.

THE republican national congressional committee is receiving money from all parts of the United States in response to its request for contributions of $1 and expects to raise a campaign fund of over three millions of dollars. Is the next to be another bought election?

From Washington.

Washington, Aug. 2

War Department officials are considering what punishment should be meted out to First Lieutenant Sidney Smith, 16th Infantry, who is reported to have ridden another fellow's horse into another officer's quarters during the wee hours of the morning. The alleged offense is reported to have been committed at Fort William McKinley, where the Sixteenth is now doing duty. The technical charge in the case is stated as being "conduct unbecoming an officer and a gentleman."

The largest marine gasoline engine in the world is about to be shipped from Baltimore Md., to Russia. It is of 1,600 horsepower, and is one of four ordered by the Czar's government at a cost of $100,000, to go into lake submarine torpedo boats.

The annual report of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, made public yesterday, shows that during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1906, the internal revenue taxes collected in Virginia amounted to $4,139,258 24. The total of Virginia does not include the counties of Accomac and Northampton, which are in the district composed of the States of Maryland, Delaware and the District of Columbia.

America is rapidly becoming a beer-drinking nation, as during the last fiscal year it consumed 54,651,636 barrels, which is 160,000,000 gallons more beer than it drank during any other year in its history. This is an increase of two gallons for every man, woman and child in the United States.

"The Material Results of the Race," was the topic under discussion at today's session of the Negro Young People's Christian and Educational Congress. President L. J. Rowan, of Alcorn Agricultural and Mechanical College, of Lorman, Miss., read a paper on "The trade and mechanical enterprises of the race." He said that the negro might be denied a seat at the festive board with the white man and not allowed to ride in the same car with him, but that there are no objections to him earning his bread and butter in the same work shops and on the same walls as the white man works for his dear ones. Rev. W. R. A. Palmer, of Birmingham, Ala., told of the learned professions filed by the race. Others told of money holdings and real estate investments.

Congressman Candler of Mississippi was one of the visitors at democratic congressional headquarters today. He is just in from Mississippi and declares that the sentiment for Bryan there is overwhelming and that he will carry every voting precinct in the State. The feeling against Roosevelt is notas bitter as it formerly was, but he is far from popular, he declares. Notwithstanding that fact he predicts that the republicans will be forced to renominate Roosevelt for the Presidency in 1908 to offset, as much as possible, the Bryan swell which he says is sweeping over the country. Mr. Candler is convinced that there is not only a possibility but a probability that the next House of Representatives of Congress will have a democratic majority. Speaking of the senatorial struggle in his State he ridiculed the boast of Gov. Vardaman that he would beat John Sharp Williams in the popular election for Senator by a vote of two to one. He said that the Williams sentiment is very strong and that the fight will undoubtedly be a close one.

Iowa Republicans.

The Iowa State republican convention yesterday evening renominated for governor of Iowa Gov. A. B. Cummins, in a turbulent but regularly conducted gathering. Gov. Cummins and his faction of the party were in absolute control. As a result, not only Cummins, but the "progressive" candidate for lieutenant governor, Warren Garst, was nominated. In spite of the fight made against the governor, the roll call resulted: Cummins, 933; George D. Perkins, 603.

It was chiefly through the offices of Senator J. P. Dolliver that the "standpat" leader agreed to concede to Gov. Cummins control of the convention.

The resolutions adopted were so diplomatically drawn that they were approved unanimously by the committee and the convention. Gov. Cummins' advocacy of the "Iowa idea" was indorsed by the wording of the tariff plank, but it was made so moderate the standpatters decided to make no objection to it. This paragraph declared for a tariff "opposed alike to foreign control and domestic monopoly," and declared changes should be made from time to time to adjust irregularities and meet changing conditions. Deliberate hisses met the mention of Secretary Shaw's name by the temporary chairman.

THE THAW CASE.

Mrs. William Thaw yesterday dismissed Black, Olcott, Gruber and Bonynge, whom she employed to get every bit of evidence they could to prepare for the defense of her son, Harry K. Thaw, after he himself had dismissed the firm just about three week ago. Mrs. Thaw has been won over by her son—or, as it was, by his wife, Evelyn Nesbit Thaw—and hereafter she will accept the advice of Clifford W. Hartridge, who was employed by her son after he got rid of the services of the Olcott firm. This means that Thaw will go to the trial pleading that he was justified in killing Stanford White on the Madison Square roof garden, and that if he was insane at all it was only a temporary aberration, brought on, he claims, by White's treatment of his wife. It also means that the differences that have existed between Harry and his wife on one side and his mother and other relatives on the other, as to the nature of his defense, have been smoothed over.

Evidence that Thaw had been on a debauch for two days previous to the Monday on which he killed the architect, and that he was intoxicated on the night of the shooting, will be adduced by the defense at the trial in support of the contention that Thaw was laboring under emotional insanity when he committed the deed. Several persons who were with Thaw at different times during his protracted term of dissipation just previous to the tragedy say they will testify to the young man's condition. It was stated that Thaw consumed almost two quarts of champagne at the Cafe Martin in New York while he was dining with his wife and a party on the night of the shooting and that previous to the dinner he went alone to the Broadway side of the restaurant and drank four cocktails. After leaving Martin's, Thaw and his wife spent more than an hour at various places, and it is declared that in this time the young man consumed still more champagne. Heretofore it has been supposed that Thaw was perfectly sober when he shot and killed White. But the defense will claim that his brain was fired by liquor when he took the life of his enemy and that he was suddenly sobered by the realization of what he had done.

Shooting of a Bridegroom.

The sensational shooting affray at the depot at Bessemer City, N. C., yesterday morning, shortly after 7 o'clock, when W. M. Brown, a bridegroom of only thirty minutes, was instantly killed by John C. Kincaid was described in the Gazette. Mr. Brown and his bride, who was Miss Bettie Perry, were awaiting the south-bound train to go to Cowpens, S. C., where they intended spending their honeymoon with the relatives of Mr. Brown when the tragedy occurred. The cause of the tradegy was at first supposed to have been jealously, but it now claimed by Kincaid to be the wronging of his sister by Brown. It is said that as soon as Kincaid heard Brown had married Miss Perry yesterday morning, he armed himself and went directly to the railroad station. He left home, it is said, with the intention of killing Brown on sight. Soon after the shooting, Kincaid voluntarily surrendered to an officer, who left post haste with him for Dallas, the county seat, where the county jail is located. Kincaid expresses no regret for what he did. He claims that Brown ruined his sister under the promise of marriage, and that he shot to kill.

Today's Telegraphic News

The Fighting at Helsingfors.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 2.—The mutiny at Kronstadt, only meagre reports of which have reached the public, has caused the greatest apprehension in official circles. How far the army and navy, the bulwark of the Czar and his monarchy, has been impregnated with the spirit of rebellion is the question that is troubling the Czar and his advisers the most. That they fear the worst is shown by the fact that the imperial yacht Polar Star is lying in readiness in the harbor with steam up at all times, to save the life of the Czar Nicholas, when the time for flight comes. Should the revolt in the army become general, and the signs point that way, there would be no further hope for Nicholas and his government.

Reports from Reval and Abo, Finland, state that there have been disorders at both places today, showing that the disorders are spreading rapidly. There is no news from Sevastopol, the great naval station on the Black Sea, even on the stock exchange, and this is regarded as significant.

To add to the danger of the situation, the workmen's councils have given orders for a general strike. Conditions throughout the empire are undoubtedly worse.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 2.—The latest news from Helsingfors in regard to the mutiny at Sveaborg fortress is to the effect that two of the islands are ablaze. The mutineers to the number of 3,000 are said to be on the point of surrendering, as they are practically without ammunition or food.

The liberal newspapers are raising an outcry because of the assassination yesterday of M. Personstein, the former member of the douma. The Retch, which accused the government of complicity in his murder, was suppressed. The conservative press takes the stand that the assassination was inevitable as a consequence of the red terror which has prevailed.

Stockholm, Swelen, Aug. 2.—The latest news received here from Helsingfors says the mutineers have gained control of the whole of Sveaborg fortress except the islands of Sandham and Harakka, which are comprised within the fortifications. The explosion of a magazine on Ugusselmen island killed forty of the mutineers. The loyal troops have lost heavily during the fighting.

During the night the mutineers seized Fort Constantine. The loyal troops poured a steady fire against the mutineers. The latter resisted stubbornly for a while and the fighting was fierce. Ultimately, however, the mutineers were dislodged from their position. The majority of the mutineers were forced to surrender, but a number were able to board a steamer and make their escape. The wildest reports are in circulation here as to what has occurred at Kronstadt. Communication with that city has been cut again, however, so that details as to the occurrences there are lacking. The interruption of the wires to Kronstadt has let to the gravest fears here that there has been a recurrence today of the disorder and that the trouble there is serious.

It was learned that troops were sent last night to surround the garrison at Kronstadt, and they arrived this morning. The subsequent developments are shrouded in mystery. One report says that four mutinous warships from Helsingsfors have arrived at Kronstadt. The guns of the fortress were trained upon the vessels, but as yet no shot has been fired at the mutineers.

Copenhagen, Denmark, Aug. 2.—A dispatch received from Helsingfors, dated at 2 p. m., states that the mutineers at Sveaborg had been completely subdued by the government troops. Quiet is gradually being restored at Helsingfors. The senate has proposed the formation of a volunteer protection corps preserve order and protect life and property in the city.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 2.—All the mutineers at Sveaborg fortress, Helsingfors, have surrendered, according to news which has reached here.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 2.—Late arrivals here from Kronstadt say that the disorder there has been quelled for the time being The spirit of the men in the garrison, however, is dangerous and further outbreaks are likely to come at any time. The brief description of events at Kronstadt given by fugitives from their is that the garrison at Fort Constantine mutinied. There were bombarded by the other forts, and the guns of fort Constantine eventually were silenced.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 2.—It is officially announced that the mutiny at Kronstadt has been ended.

The crew of the cruiser Pamjotz mutinied today and killed the commander and four other officers. The battleship Slava has been ordered to find and sink the mutineer.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 2.—Ambassador Meyer at St. Petersburg today cabled the State Department that the revolt of soldiers has been suppressed and that the city is now quiet. He declares that the report of mutiny on board the Russian warships is denied.

Baltimore and Ohio Railroad.

New York, Aug. 2.—It was officially announced after today's meeting of the executive committee of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company that only routine matters were passed upon, and that no changes were made in the board of directors. It had been anticipated that Vice President Thayer and other Pennsylvania Railroad officials would resign from the Baltimore and Ohio directorate. They took this action so far as the Norfolk & Western Railroad was concerned, presumably because the government is probing alleged railroad combines and it was expected that resignations from the board of the Baltimore and Ohio would be handed in today.

A Denial.

Oyster Bay, N. Y, Aug 2.—Denial was made at the executive office this morning of a story published in the morning papers which charges General Leonard Wood with drawing two salaries in the Phillippines. According to the story in question. General Wood collects his army pay and also "draws $4,000 a year as civil governor." "The story is ridiculous on its face," said Secretary Loeb. "General Wood has nothing whatever to do with the civil administration of the islands."

Convicted of Grand Larceny.

Buffalo, N. Y., Aug. 2.—John W. Neff, former auditor of Erie county, was convicted at Warsaw this morning of grand larceny, first degree, in stealing about $33,000 of public funds in connection with the removal of the bodies from the North Street Cemetery, now the site of the Fifth regiment armory. Roland J. Conover, who removed the bodies from the cemetery under contract with the county, has been convicted of grand larceny, first degree, and awaits sentence. He testified at the trial of Neff that false warrants were made by Neff and that the money thus obtained was divided equally by Neff and himself and Supervisors Jackson and Gibson, and that these warrants were paid the then county treasurer Murray. At the trial of Conover it was shown that Conover piled up the human bones taken from the cemetery and called each pile a body. In this way the county was made to pay several times for the removal of bodies which did not exist. Neff's wife almost swooned when she heard the verdict in the court room. Tears shone in Neff's eyes, and he grasped the hand of his little girl who sat near him. He is now in the custody of the Sheriff at Warsaw, but will furnish $15,000 bond promptly. An appeal will be taken.

Alleged Graft in the Philippines.

Manila, Aug. 2.—Col. Wood, Inspector General, who is making an investigation into the accounts of the army construction department, has discovered indications of graft extending over a period of four years. Four army quartermasters have been ordered to Manila from the United States to testify and clerks McChesney and Quirk are under orders to proceed to the Philippines to tell what they know of irregularities in accounts. Captains G. A. Nugent, F. W. Cole, A. W. Kimball, and Frienenoph have been ordered here. They were quartermasters in charge of the construction department during the years in which it is alleged thousand of dollars were mishandled. The charges made are falsifications of vouchers, and padding pay-rolls but no one yet is specifically accused.

Alleged Clerical Error.

New York, Aug. 2.—Attorneys for some of the heirs of Russell Sage have learned of a clerical error in the will of the late financier, which may form the basis of litigation, that will end in having the document set aside or until the principal beneficiary and executors are dead and buried. It has been discovered that the clause to which the testator attached his signature there is an erasure of a date, which apparently had escaped the scrutiny of any of the heirs-at-law. In the fourth line of the paragraph over the testator's signature is the obliteration or erasure of the year on which may depend the validity of the document, and on which the legatees who have taken the first step in the contest will bring in the other heirs who have expressed themselves as satisfied.

Killed in Alterlation.

Boston, Aug. 2.—Edward Duer, of South Boston, a private at the Charlestown Navy Yard, was killed at the marine barracks just before 8 o'clock last night as the result of an altercation with Acting Corporal Thomas Jenkins, one of the non-commissioned men of the guard. Every one is agreed that a fatal result of a blow struck with the bare hand, was not intended. But deep mystery was thrown about the matter by the officers of the yard who in every way endeavored to prevent, even the fact of the fatality from becoming public, and then refused to see the officers of the Charlestown police division who was sent to investigate the case. Jenkins was immediately arrested, ironed and taken to the naval prison at the yard to await official investigation.

Lord Douglas Released.

Portland, Me., Aug., 2.— Lord Sholto Douglas, who has been detained a day and two nights by the Portland police because he was mistaken for the bogus Lord Douglas, who has been masquerading in North Carolina and elsewhere, was released today. His identity was fully established through cablegrams and documents showing his residence in London at a time when the bogus lord was operating in the South. Lord Douglas and Lady Douglas will continue to reside until fall in an unpretentious country cottage near Sebago Lake. They expect to pass the winter in New York.

Little Triplets.

New York, Aug. 2.—Triplets so small that if they were rolled into one mass would just about fill a 6 7-8 size hat, were placed in the incubator at Dreamland, Coney Island, yesterday. The faces of the tiny beings are scarcely larger than a moderate-sized watch. Mrs. Charles Spier, of No. 166 Hamburg avenue, Brooklyn, is the mother. She has nine children besides the triplets, and all are normal and healthy. The new arrivals are two girls and a boy. The three weigh only forty-two ounces, and it is said that they are the smallest triplets on record.

The Castellane Divorce Case.

Paris, Aug. 2.—A private agreement has been reached between Count Boni de Castellane and his wife, Countess Anna, who is suing him for divorce, in regard to the custody of their children. It is stipulated by this agreement that at least one of the children shall remain with the mother at all times. The two sons will go immediately to spend two or three weeks with their father, while the daughter remains with her mother. On the return of the boys their sister will make a visit to her father.

An Alpine Fatality.

Vienna, Aug. 2.— Walter Friedlander, grandson of Professor Pulitzer, the Austrian aurist, and cousin of Joseph Pulitzer, of New York, slipped while he was descending the Brauningzinken yesterday and was sent flying over a precipice. He was killed by the fall. His companion, Asele Schreiber, an authoress, was seriously injured by a fall. The Alpine casualties this week have been heavy.

The proprietress of a boarding house in Pittsburg yesterday swore that Augustus Hartje paid the room rent of Josephine Wright while the latter lived in her house, thus contradicting both Hartje and the woman.

Baltimore, Aug. 2.—Lycurgus Winchester, aged twenty-seven years, a leader in local society and well known in New York, a member of the firm of Winchester Bros., prominent bankers, was killed, and a woman who accompanied him seriously injured by an electric car early this morning. Winchester, together with several officials of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, had spent the evening at a suburban resort and was returning to the city with Miss Eleanora B. Wise, 19, of this city, when at North and Mount Royal avenues a car hit their vehicle and crushed it against an iron pole. Winchester was instantly killed. Miss Wise, while seriously injured, may recover. The motorman of the car was arrested. Winchester was married, and his wife is at present with her father, Daniel Platt, at New Rochelle, N. Y.

Allman, and Wm J Mackin, all of New York city, that they will not be permitted to open their big gambling houses here the present season, and the consequence is that there is "nothing doing," among the sporting fraternity.

Bristol, Tenn., Aug. 2.—John B. Caldwell, a young man, who was formerly prominent in society here and at Roanoke, Va., has been sentenced to seven years in the Virginia penitentiary by the Judge of the Circuit Court, at Wise, Va. When arraigned, Caldwell pleaded guilty. He comes of one of the best families of Virginia.

New York Stock Market.

New York, August 2.—A lower range of prices from London and expectation that the heavy profit-taking of yesterday would be followed by further sales this morning kept many issues somewhat reactionary in the first hour. Prices turned upward, however, before 11 o'clock. Heavy selling then set in, but this in turn was followed by irregular and somewhat feverish reaction. The general railroad list, however, was somewhat unsettled by the prominence of St. Paul and the fear of unfortunate market complications and many issues sold off fractionally.

Trouble in Spain.

Disorders have occurred between republicans and clericals at a number of points in Spain, notably in the Basque provinces, where the intervention of the police was required to prevent republicans from breaking up fetes held in commemoration of St. Ignatius, the founder of the Jesuit order. The disorders have been augumented by the policy of the new Dominguez ministry, which seeks a modification of clerical privileges.

One of the first decrees of the new ministry settles the long-pending controversy over civil marriages. The clergy have heretofore required a religious marriage ceremony and have refused burial in consecrated cemeteries to those married by the civil form only. The minister of justice, Count Romanones, has now promulgated a decree holding that the concordat does not warrant these clerical restrictions, setting forth that civil marriages are within the prerogatives of the state, and forbidding restrictions upon burial in consecrated cemeteries based upon the civil marriage ceremony.

This action is generally interpreted as indicating a tendency of the cabinet towards the French policy of separating of church and State. Disorders between republicans and clericals in Barcelona also are reported.

Explosion in a Mine.

A terrific explosion occurred in the mine of the Warrior Run Coal Company at Warrior Run, near Wilkesbarre, Pa., yesterday, and John Shumaker, a miner, was instantly killed. Through crevices formed on the surface by the explosion, the gas escaped from the workings below into the houses situated over the mine, and, coming into contact with a lighted lamp in the home of John Williams, caused another explosion which resulted in the death of his daughter Margaret, aged sixteen years. The settling of the earth also affected the water mains of the village, and as a result the home of Williams and an adjoining house were totally destroyed. Last night the town was in total darkness, as the escaping gas makes the use of lights extremely hazardous. From stagnant pools in and about the city, many hundreds of men are carrying water in an attempt to smother incipient blazes in various sections. The heroic workers are making little progress in their endeavors to suppress the flames, and the residents are alarmed for fear the fire may be communicated to some dwelling, in the event of which the entire town would be in danger of destruction.

Typhoid Fever in Washington.

The typhoid fever situation in Washington grows more alarming day by day. Yesterday morning the Health Department reported that during the last 24 hours 12 new cases had been brought to the attention of the authorities, making a total of 405 cases that have been reported since the epidemic began. At the present time 177 patients are receiving treatment, there having been three deaths and two recoveries reported during the last 24 hours. In July there were 193 cases of typhoid reported, as compared with 132 cases for the same month last year. On August 1 last year there had been a total of 249 cases reported, or 156 less than this year. The report of the Health Department for the week which ended June 28, submitted to the District Commissioners yesterday, shows that 50 new cases of typhoid were reported during the week. The mortality record for the week shows 117 deaths, of which 61 were white and 56 negroes.

Decision Rendered.

Judge C. E. Nicol today rendered his decision in the case of Jno. P. Agnew & Co. against the Jackson-Phillips Brick Company, in which the court held that the allegations of the complainant's bill that the Jackson-Phillips Brick Company is insolvent and has ceased to be a going concern is sustained, and that the injunction heretofore awarded in the case should not be dissolved, but that the case should be retained on the docket in order that full and complete justice may be done the various interests involved in the case, and that the property of the company should be sold under the decree of the Court and by commissioners to be appointed, to be composed of the attorneys representing the complainants and defendants in the cause. The exceptions of the complainants to the validity of the attachment of Hugh J. Phillips and to the validity of $19,000 of first mortgage bonds held by William H. Jackson were overruled. The exceptions of Mertens & Agnew and of the defendant, William H. Jackson, to the finding of the commissioner on the claim of Mertens & Agnew were overruled and the report of the commissioner in that respect confirmed. The exception of the complainants and others to the report of the commissioner as to the application of $13,100 received by William H. Jackson as the proceeds of a sale of a part of the property of the Jackson-Phillips Brick Company conveyed to the Washington Southern Railway Company, were sustained and the court ruled that the $13,100 should be applied first to the payment of taxes accrued on the land, and second, the balance pro tanto on the indebtedness secured under the first deed of trust. The decision substantially sustains the contentions made on the part of the complainants, Jno. P. Agnew & Co., except in the particulars above named. The complainants were represented by Col. F. L. Smith and J. E. & H. B. Caton, and defendants by Messrs. Norton & Boothe and Hufty & Hufty.

Sewer Pipe in Position.

Another section of sewer pipe to be placed in position at the outlet of the big sewer on the river a short distance north of Shepherd's landing was on Tuesday taken to the site of the outlet and was lowered in place yesterday for the divers to make the couplings with the sections already in position and to anchor the pipe with tons of concrete placed above and around it. Three sections of the big pipe, which is six feet in diameter and about ten feet long, were joined together at the yard on the Eastern branch and were suspended between two scows. In this manner the long cylinder was carried to the site of the sewer and lowered by means of derricks between the scows, into position. The handling of the heavy and unwieldly pipe in this manner required much skill in adjusting it to prevent slipping on the trip to the sewer outlet, and all steamers passing the scows and their burden on the river slowed down to give them a wide berth in order to make as little sea as possible

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Joseph Adams and Fred Watkins, both colored, arrested by Officer Lyles for disorderly conduct, were fined $5 each.

Melville Newman, arrested by Officer Jones charged with disorderly conduct and flourishing a knife, was fined $10.

James Watkins, arrested by the same officer charged with assaulting Bessie Watkins, forfeited his collateral by failing to appear.

Charles Lloyd, arrested by Special Officer Mullin charged with escaping from the work house, was dismissed upon promising to secure employment.

Fined Five Dollars Each.

The cries of murder heard at the extreme southern end of Pitt street about 11 o'clock Tuesday night was the outcome of a fight between several negroes. Officer Lyles last night arrested several darkeys, among whom were Joseph Adams and Fred Watkins, who proved to be the originators of the trouble. Watkins, who was attending a bar, got into a difficulty with Adams, during which the latter armed himself with stones. Before the crowd dispersed several other negroes became involved in the difficulty. Adams and Watkins were fined $5 each in the Police Court this morning.

The Electric Plant.

Mr. C. C. Carlin, the local attorney for Mr. E. E. Mandeville, of Philadelphia, who has been granted the electric franchise in Alexandria, returned today from Philadelphia where he has been on business connected with the franchise. He says Mr. Mandeville has already given contracts for part of the material to be used in the construction of the plant and that he expects to commence work on the necesary building in a short time. A charter for the company to operate the plant has been applied for and will be secured in a few days.

Lights for Upper King Street.

The action of the county authorities in stopping the Washington-Southern Railway Company from placing lights on King street extended is said to have been caused by the failure of the company to place the poles on that thoroughfare in proper positions. Most of the poles are out of plumb and the authorities contend they should be placed in upright positions. When this shall have been done the county authorities will be glad to see additional lamps hung.

Fall of Electric Wire.

There was another collapse of electric railway wire at the intersection of King and Fairfax streets between 6 and 7 o'clock yesterday evening. The wire extending on Fairfax street from King to Prince, sagged dangerously near the ground for a time. The fall of wire is almost an ever day occurrence, and it is feared that a serious accident will sooner or later result.

Capsizing of a Launch.

A naptha launch from Washington, containing five men, capsized in the dock of the Mutual Ice Company at the foot of Cameron street yesterday evening. The accident is said to have been caused by all the occupants seating themselves on one side of the boat. Several persons who were nearby at the time went to the rescue of the men who were soon landed on the wharf. The submerged launch was later towed to the foot of Prince street.

Drew a Knife.

A negro youth named Melvin Newman visited the old fair grounds last night where he became involved in a difficulty with some of the employees of the carnival company now exhibiting on the grounds. Newman drew a knife and acted in a menacing manner toward two members of the company. He was later arrested by Officer Jones and this morning Justice Caton fined him $10.

Romance in a Hospital.

A romance came to light at the Western State Hospital at Staunton yesterday, in which a young lady physician of Baltimore played a leading part.

Dr. Jessie M. Thorton came from Baltimore last spring to accept a position on the medical staff of the hospital to take charge of the female wards. Ten days ago she resigned. The time expired yesterday and she left for Wheeling, West Virginia.

She explained before leaving that she had been married to Dr. McClung Scott, now of Wheeling, but formerly on the Western State Hospital staff. She gave no particulars of the marriage. She has now gone to join her husband, leaving a vacancy for a female physician.

Planning to Attack Will.

Plans of attack upon the will of Russell Sage are being prepared by the relatives, and according to the last conference it is considered advisable to begin by filing objections on September 2, when the citations are returnable.

The ground on which such a contest could be made, in the opinion of the kinsmen of the late financier, is that the testator was not capable of making a will for five or six years before his death. Wall street men who were seen yesterday doubt if anyone could prove that in 1901, when the will was made, Mr. Sage was not fully capable of disposing of his property. They point out that in 1901 he was conducting extensive operations, that he was in contact with some of the brightest minds of the financial world, and that he never betrayed the slightest sign of not being in command of his faculties. Had the will been made two years ago they think there might be some chance of contesting it. It was pointed out that if the question were ever raised scores of brokers and bankers could be brought forward who would testify that Mr. Sage was entirely able to take care of his money. The question is also raised as to whether or not a man could be unduly influenced by his wife.

Etiquette Among Forest Rangers.

While in the forest reserve in which we hunted I met several of the forest rangers, all of them intelligent men, some with college education, men who seemed peculiarly adapted to their calling, who knew the mountains thoroughly, handy with an ax and gun and full of resources. A degree of ethics obtained among the sportsmen, guides, trappers and forest rangers that was interesting. When any one goes to a deserted cabin, in most of which would be found food, bedding, a stove, etc., it is proper form for him to stay all night, eat all he can put away under his belt, if in dire need divide any supply of tobacco and matches he may find, but he must take away nothing else, since to carry off an article of little value, such as hammer, hatchet, pinchers, snow glasses, screw driver, fish hook, pipe or other similar article might inconvenience the owner greatly when he happened along and wanted them and was forty miles or more from a source of supply. If a belated wanderer fails to wash the dishes and leave a supply of dry wood sufficient to build a fire and cook a meal he is at once tabooed and his companionship is not sought after.—Northwestern Sportsman.

The Size of the Sun.

The sun, provided we measure only the disk seen with the smoked glass, is 860,000 miles in diameter—i. e., 108 earths could be comfortably ranged side by side across the disk. To cover the surface would require many thousands. To fill the interior we should need 1,300,000. On a smaller scale we might represent the sun by a ball two feet in diameter and the earth by a good sized grain of shot. Let the sun be hollowed out, then place the earth at its center and let the moon revolve about it at its real distance of 240,000 miles. There would yet remain nearly 200,000 miles of space between the moon's orbit and the inclosing shell of the sun. Indeed to journey from one side of the sun to the other, through the center, would take one of our swift express trains nearly two and a half years. So vast a globe must be heavy. Since its density is only one-quarter that of the earth it only weighs as much as 332,000 earths, or two octillions of tons. The attraction of gravity on its surface would cause a man whose weight was 150 pounds to weigh two tons.

Language In France.

There are several districts in France where the very ancient tongues still survive. Basque is spoken by about 100,000 persons, who are naturally proud of a language that is their exclusive possession, for it is unlike every other spoken tongue, and the assertion is commonly made that to understand it one must have learned it in the cradle. This peculiar property gives in the mind of the Basque people support to their belief that it was the language of Adam and Eve. The same claim is advanced, though, for Breton. The Romans when they conquered Gaul compared Breton to croaking of ravens. About a million people speak Breton. Then there are Flemish, still spoken by a comparatively small number in northeastern France, Catalan in the Pyrenees-Orientales and Languedoc and Provencal, whose gradual extinction has been delayed mainly by the efforts of a few literary enthusiasts.

Ancient Roses.

Flinders Petrie, the archaeologist, while excavating among some ancient Egyptian tombs, found a wreath of roses which had been bound into a garland and buried with the dead thousands of years ago. M. Crepin, the botanist and microscopist, made a careful examination of this queer find and prepared a paper on it which he read before the Royal society of Belgium. From this paper it appears that in places where the flowers were matted together they still retained their color as well as a very faint odor. The species to which they belong is now extinct, but a rose resembling them in several particulars is still grown in Egypt and Abyssinia.

"A Bare Bodkin."

"Bare" means "mere" as well as "naked," and I cannot doubt that by "bare bodkin" Shakespeare meant "mere bodkin," the point of the passage being with how contemptibly small an instrument we could, if we chose, put an end to life and all its bother. "Bare" probably was used instead of "mere" for the sake of effective alliteration. (Cf. with Hamlet's "bare bodkin;" Richard II.'s "little pin," III, 2, 169.) For "bare" in the sense of "mere" I need cite only "bare imagination of a feast."—London Notes and Queries.

Four Days In the Year.

There are but four days in the year when the sun and clock exactly correspond. In other words, there are but four days of the 365 in which the sun is directly south at noon.
The 15th of April and the 17th of June remember,
August 31 and 24th of December.
On these four days (and none else in the year)
The sun and clock both the same time declare.

The Miracle.

Woodland—What is the difference between a wonder and a miracle? Lorain—Well, if you'd touch me for $5 and I'd lend it to you it would be a wonder. Woodland—That's so. Lorain—And if you returned it that would be a miracle.

Prof. Tyler, of Amherst college, said recently: "A man can live comfortably without brains; no man ever existed without a digestive system. The dyspeptic has neither faith, hope or charity." Day by day people realize the importance of caring for their digestion; realize the need of the use of a little corrective after overeating. A corrective like Kodol For Dyspepsia. It digests what you eat. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 Kingstreet.

Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.

Don't Be Touchy.

There are some people always looking out for slights. They cannot pay a visit, they cannot receive a friend, they cannot carry on the intercourse of the family, without suspecting some offense is designed. They are terribly touchy. If they meet an acquaintance in the street who happens to be preoccupied with business, they attribute his abstraction to some motive personal to themselves and take umbrage accordingly. They lay on others the fault of their irritability. A fit of indigestion makes them see impertinences in everybody they come in contact with. Innocent persons who never dreamed of giving offense are astonished to find some unfortunate word or some momentary taciturnity mistaken for insult. Of course, such a mental condition is due to too much thinking about self and to an exaggerated self esteem, even though unconscious. The best remedy is to persistently put thoughts of self out of mind. Find something more absorbing and more elevating to think about if you are one of the touchy ones, and you'll soon lose the habit.

A Storm Above the Clouds.

Professor John Wise, the eminent aeronaut, who lost his life in making a balloon ascension on Sept. 28, 1879, gave the following description of a thunderstorm which he once viewed from the "top side:" "The view of a stormcloud from above is one of the most interesting sights ever beheld by mortal man. A storm viewed from above the clouds has the appearance of ebullition. The upper surface of the cloud is bulged upward and outward and has the resemblance of a vast sea of boiling, upheaving snow. Immediately above the stormcloud the air is not so cold as it is in the clearer atmosphere above or in the cloud itself. The falling of the rain can be distinctly heard, making a noise like a waterfall over a precipice. The thunder heard above a stormcloud is not loud, and the flashes of lightning appear like streaks of intensely white light on the surface of the gray colored vapor."

A Life of Freedom.

People sometimes think how delightful it would be to be quite free. But a fish, as Ruskin says, is freer than a man, and, as for a fly, it is "a black incarnation of freedom." A life of so called pleasure and self indulgence is not a life of real happiness or true freedom. Far from it. If we once begin to give way to ourselves we fall under a most intolerable tyranny. Other temptations are in some respects like that of drink. At first, perhaps, it seems delightful, but there is bitterness at the bottom of the cup. Men drink to satisfy the desire created by previous indulgence. So it is in other things. Repetition soon becomes a craving, not a pleasure. Resistance grows more and more painful. Yielding, which at first, perhaps, afforded some slight and temporary gratification, soon ceases to give pleasure and, even if for a time it procures relief, ere long becomes odious itself.

Died Standing.

The incident of Ratisbon—a French officer, though mortally wounded, rides back to Napoleon, reports the capture of the city and then falls from his saddle dead—is paralleled by a story of Gettysburg. An officer of the Sixth Wisconsin regiment walked up to Colonel Dawes, who was in command—Colonel Bragg was in Washington on crutches. The officer was very erect and very pale. Dawes and Doubleday both thought he was coming with a report or to receive orders. But he was not. He had a favor to ask. "Colonel," he said to Dawes, "will you tell the folks at home I died as a man and a soldier should?" Then he unbuttoned his coat. His whole side was shot away. It was his last effort. He died standing.

Luckiest Man in Arkansas.

"I'm the luckiest man in Arkansas," writes H. L. Stanley, of Bruno, "since the restoration of my wife's health after five years of continuous coughing and bleeding from the lungs; and I owe my good fortune to the world's greatest medicine, Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, which I know from experience will cure consumption if taken in time. My wife improved with first bottle and twelve bottles completed the cure." Cures the worst coughs and colds or money refunded. At E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' druggists. 50c and $1.00.
